

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS CONFINEMENT & CONTAGION

Confinement and Contagion is an upcoming exhibition for artists affected by the prison system to share their work and their stories.

The exhibition, accompanied with participatory workshops, will bring to light the vulnerability of racialized incarcerated people and those in their networks to adverse physical and mental health impacts.

APPLICATION PACKAGES SHOULD INCLUDE

- Artist's Bio and / or Artist's Statement (Maximum 500 words).
- Why you would like to be involved in this project. Filmed or written replies will be accepted (Maximum 5 minutes or 500 words).
- 5-10 samples of your work.
- CV (Optional).

Accepted formats: PDF, .word, .pages, mp3, mp4, Google Drive link.

Apply to ccproject2022@gmail.com by August 1 2021.

Honourariums will be granted to successful applicants.

The exhibition will run in April 2022, as a part of the 7th annual Myseum Intersections festival.

Presented in partnership with

MYSEUM OF TORONTO

CURATED BY
DEFNE INCEOGLU
REVITAL WEISS

INSTA: @confinementandcontagion
WEB: confinementandcontagion.ca
CONTACT: ccproject2022@gmail.com

IN COLLABORATION WITH

LITERAL
CHANGE

